

Software Engineer (f/m/d) - B2C Digital Solutions

Vienna | asap | part-time / full-time | unlimited

We are Magenta

Magenta Telekom is a leading provider of internet, mobile communications, entertainment and business solutions in Austria. The company counts around 2,200 employees and is part of the Deutsche Telekom Group.

Your Team

At Magenta, we're dedicated to delivering seamless and high-quality digital experiences to our customers. To support this, we're looking for a proactive and collaborative Software Engineer who is passionate about building scalable and efficient systems. In this role you'll work closely with product teams, developers and stakeholders to bring ideas to life through clean, maintainable code and thoughtful implementation. You'll be instrumental in driving forward the development of platforms and services that align with business goals and user needs.

- Develop and maintain software components that support our business objectives, with a focus on performance, reliability and security
- Collaborate with team members to understand requirements and break down complex problems into manageable development tasks
- Contribute to code reviews, share knowledge and help uphold engineering best practices
- Participate in testing, debugging and resolving issues to ensure high-quality software delivery
- Write clear, concise documentation to support your work and help others build on it
- Support the adoption of agile workflows and contribute to a culture of continuous improvement and team learning
- Explore and experiment with new technologies and approaches that could improve product quality or team productivity

- Do you have 7+ years of experience in software development (preferred Java) with a solid understanding of software engineering principles and experience writing production-ready code?
- Do you have a proven ability to implement cloud-native applications (AWS)?
- Are you familiar with event driven architecture & tools (e.g. Kafka) as well as with CI/CD pipelines and DevOps practices?

At Magenta, we believe in diverse employees and live equal opportunities. We welcome all applications regardless of cultural and social background, age, gender, nationality, religion, disability or sexual orientation. Magenta connects all people.
